

General email terms and conditions

We treat privacy and confidentiality very seriously and we comply with all aspects of the UK's data protection legislative framework which includes the European General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and the UK's own legislation. To learn more about how we use and store your data, please read our privacy policy available on our website <https://www.siderise.com/privacy-policy>

All forms of communication and supporting attachments are confidential and are not intended to be read by any person or organisation other than the intended recipient. If you receive a communication in error, you must not review, copy, distribute or take any action in reliance on it; please contact the sender and then immediately delete it from your system. Any technical advice or recommendations are given in good faith and no warranty is expressed or implied.

WARNING: Computer viruses can be transmitted by email. The recipient should check emails and any attachments for the presence of viruses. Internet communications are not secure, and we accept no liability for any abuse of such communications by third parties or for any alteration or corruption during transmission or for any damage or loss caused by any virus or other defect.
